Story:

a major breakthrough on the killing of a senior commissioned officer is applauded and commendable. This follows the hard work and sleepless nights by the members of the Durban Organised Crime Unit who worked tirelessly in making sure that the perpetrators were brought to book.

A police operation was conducted on Thursday night which led to the arrest of a "hitman" (27) at the KwaMashu men's hostel. The operation further led the police to a residence at Excelsior Court where a police constable (32) was arrested.

The police constable was attending a departmental trial for assaulting a police captain where the late Lt Col Francis Pillay was the presiding officer. This incident occurred at the Bayview Police Station where both the officers i.e the captain and the constable were stationed. The information at hand suggest that the constable conspired with the hitman and made an offer to pay R5 000 upon the successful killing of Lt Col Pillay.

Lt Col Pillay (50) came under attack at his home in Lotus Park, Lotus Drive, outside Isipingo. The incident occurred on 26 May 2010 at about 16:30. The officer was driving his private car with his wife when he arrived at home.

The officer parked his car on the driveway and alighted to greet one of the neighbours. When the member returned back to his car, he was confronted by three suspects who allegedly had a short conversation with him, as the member was leaving, heavy gunfire was heard. The member was struck twice in his chest and once in the neck and was declared dead at the scene.

A .30 special revolver, suspected to have been used during the murder, was recovered at the KwaMashu men's hostel. It will be sent for ballistic tests. The arrested suspects, Robm Dube (32) and Sakhosho Dladla (27) appeared in the Durban Magistrates' Court on 21 June 2010. They were remanded in custody until 28 June 2010 for further investigation.
